The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act relative to menstrual product ingredient disclosure.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 94 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following
2 section:-

3 Section 330. (a) For the purposes of the section the following words shall have the 4 following meanings:

5 “Ingredient”, an intentionally added substance present in the menstrual product.

6 “Menstrual product”, a product used to collect menstruation and vaginal discharge
7 including, but not limited to, tampons, pads, menstrual cups, disks, sponges and menstrual
8 underwear, whether disposable or reusable.

“Manufacturer”, (i) a person or entity that manufactures a menstrual product and whose name appears on the product label; or (ii) a person or entity for whom the product is manufactured or distributed, as identified on the product label pursuant to 15 U.S.C. chapter 39 the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act.

(b) On each package or box, containing menstrual products manufactured for sale or distribution in the commonwealth, a manufacturer shall have printed a label with a plain and conspicuous list of all ingredients, which shall be listed in order of predominance. The label shall be typed in visible print, a minimum font size of 10 points and displayed on the outside of the package or box.

(c) A manufacturer shall change the label on a menstrual product because of a change to an ingredient or addition of a new ingredient.

(d) A manufacturer of a menstrual product that is manufactured for sale or distribution in the commonwealth shall post on an internet website, in an electronically readable format, the ingredient information that is required to be disclosed on a package or box containing menstrual products pursuant to subsection (b).

(e) A manufacturer shall revise information disclosed online due to a change in an ingredient or addition of a new ingredient.

(f) The requirements of this section shall apply in addition to any other labeling requirements established pursuant to the General Laws.

(g) Whoever manufactures a menstrual product in violation of this section shall be punished by a fine of $1,000 dollars.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect 12 months upon passage.
