HOUSE No. 3003

By Representative Zlotnik of Gardner, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3003) of Jonathan D. Zlotnik for an investigation by a special commission relative to awarding a retirement credit to certain public employees who worked between March, 2020 and at least January, 2021. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act relative to a COVID-19 retirement credit study.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 There shall be a commission to study and report on the cost and feasibility of awarding a 2 retirement credit to certain public employees who worked in their normal place of work, 3 performing their normal duties between March 13th 2020, and at least January 1st 2021. The 4 commission shall evaluate which employees should qualify for a credit, and by what criteria the 5 amount of that credit should be determined. Priority will be given to those employees who in the 6 normal course of their job continued to interact with members of the public or performed other 7 duties that put them at greater risk of exposure to covid-19. Employees who primarily worked 8 from their home, or who were not required as a condition of their employment to regularly report
9 to their normal place of work during this period shall not be eligible. Elected officials shall not 10 be eligible.

11 The commission shall be composed of 2 members appointed by each of the following, the 12 Speaker of the House, the Senate President, the Governor; 1 member appointed by each of the 13 following, the Minority Leader of the House, the Minority Leader of the Senate; 3 members 14 appointed by mutual agreement of the Speaker of the House, the Senate President, and the 15 Governor who serve in a leadership capacity in an association or union representing the interests 16 of the employees who would be eligible for the credit.
