SENATE No. 1011

By Ms. Miranda, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1011) of Liz Miranda for legislation to promote housing stability for families by strengthening the HomeBASE program. Housing.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act promoting housing stability for families by strengthening the HomeBASE program.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 30 of chapter 23B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by inserting after subsection A, paragraph (e) the following:-

3 (f) for re-housing, short-term housing transition program benefits, which shall be 4 available initially for 24 months and then in 12-month, renewable allotments, to eligible families.

5 The executive office shall provide further allotments of household assistance from the 6 Massachusetts short-term housing transition program to families that received household 7 assistance in a prior period to prevent eviction from existing housing or to relocate to another 8 housing situation in cases where a.) the family complied with their rehousing plan during the 9 prior period of assistance and b.) continues to include a child under the age of 21 or a pregnant 10 person.

11 The executive office shall not impose income eligibility restrictions on families once they 12 are enrolled in the program.

13 The executive office shall not require families to be evicted from their existing housing or 14 to otherwise establish that they fall into one of the four categories of affirmative eligibility for 15 emergency assistance shelter currently listed in item 7004-0101.

16 Families in summary process commenced for a reason determined by the executive office 17 to be a no fault or excused fault reason for eviction can apply and be found eligible for short-18 term transition program benefits in order to prevent eviction from existing housing or permit the 19 family to relocate to another housing situation. The executive office shall allow families to apply 20 and be found eligible for this short-term housing benefit after the summons and complaint is 21 filed in court. Families shall be found eligible for short-term housing transition benefits if, but 22 for feasible alternative housing, they otherwise meet the eligibility requirements for family 23 shelter.

24 The executive office shall provide household assistance in an amount up to $50,000 in 25 the first 24-month period, or a higher cap as established in line item 7004-0108, and up to 26 $25,000, or higher cap as established in line item 7004-0108, in subsequent 12-month periods to 27 eligible families.

28 The executive office shall allow families to combine and maximize benefits under the 29 Massachusetts short-term housing transition program and residential assistance for families in 30 transition funds from line item 7004-9316 if families are eligible for both programs, such funds 31 are needed to promote housing stability, and the assistance is non-duplicative.
