

HOUSE No. 4306

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, July 28, 2025.

The committee on Aging and Independence, to whom was referred the petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 789) of Thomas M. Stanley and others for legislation to create safe environments for home care workers and consumers, reports recommending that the accompanying bill (House, No. 4306) ought to pass.

For the committee,

THOMAS M. STANLEY.

HOUSE No. 4306

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act to improve Massachusetts home care.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 111 of the General Laws, , is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 51O the following 3 sections:-

3 Section 51P. (a) For the purposes of this section and sections 51Q and 51R, the following
4 words shall, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:

5 “Home care agency”, a business, nonprofit organization or other entity engaged in 6 providing home care services to consumers in the consumers’ residence for compensation or any 7 entity or individual that represents itself as a home care agency by name, advertising or 8 presentments to the public or uses the terms “home care agency” or “home care” in the entity or 9 individual’s name; or any entity that procures, offers, refers, provides or attempts to provide an 10 independent careworker or home care aide who provides home care services to clients or home
11 care seekers; provided however, that "home care agency" shall not include any of the following:

12 (i) an entity operated by either the federal government or the commonwealth providing home
13 care services, (ii) an entity that limits its business to the provision of house cleaning services, (iii)

an Aging Service Access Points entity as defined in section 4B of chapter 19A, (v) a hospice program licensed under section 57D or (vi) a home health agency as defined in section 51K.

“Home care consumers”, an individual receiving home care services or any legal representative of such individual.

“Home care services”, supportive services provided to an individual in their residence to enable that individual to remain in their residence safely and comfortably, including, but not limited to, assistance with eating, toileting, dressing, bathing, transferring, ambulation and other activities of daily living, housekeeping, personal laundry and companionship. Home care services shall not include hospice services provided by an entity subject to licensure under section 57D or home health services provided by an entity subject to licensure under section 51K, services provided by a personal care attendant in the commonwealth’s personal care attendant program as defined in 130 CMR 422.000 or services provided under the MassHealth adult foster care program as defined in 101 CMR 351.00.

“Home care worker”, an individual employed by a home care agency who provides home care services to a consumer in the consumer’s residence.

“Personal care attendant”, an individual who provides consumer-directed personal care services to a consumer in the consumer’s residence, including, but not limited to, a person providing such services as defined under section 70 of chapter 118E.

“Secretary”, the secretary of health and human services.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly authorized by the secretary, no person shall establish, maintain, operate or hold oneself out as a home care agency without a home care agency license

35 issued by the secretary and no organization or entity shall provide home care services, use the 36 words "home care" to describe its services or establish, maintain, operate or hold itself out as a 37 home care agency without a home care agency license issued by the secretary; provided, that 38 licensure shall be required for home care agencies that directly employ home care workers or 39 directly contract with a company who employs home care workers.

40 (c) The secretary shall issue for a term to be determined, and may renew for like terms, a 41 home care agency license to any person or entity of any kind, other than a department, agency or 42 institution of the federal government, the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof,
43 that: (i) the secretary deems responsible and suitable to establish or operate a home care agency,
44 and (ii) meets the requirements of the executive office of health and human services established 45 in accordance with the office's rules and regulations developed in consultation with the 46 executive office of aging and independence and the department of public health as provided in 47 subsection (e).

48 A home care agency license shall be subject to suspension, revocation or refusal to renew 49 for cause. License application and renewal fees shall be established pursuant to section 3B of 50 chapter 7.

51 The secretary may issue a provisional license for a term not to exceed 120 days to an 52 applicant that has not previously operated home care services, or to a home care agency that is 53 operating but is temporarily unable to meet applicable standards and requirements. If a 54 provisional licensee has made significant progress towards meeting such requirements, the 55 secretary may renew the provisional license once for a period not to exceed 120 days from the 56 expiration of the initial provisional license.

(d) The secretary may impose a fine on a person or entity that advertises, announces, establishes, or operates a home care agency without a license granted by the secretary. The secretary may impose a fine on a licensed home care agency that violates this section, or any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder. Each day during which a violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

The secretary, in collaboration with the executive office of aging and independence and the department of public health, may conduct surveys and investigations to enforce compliance with this section.

(e) The secretary shall, in consultation with the executive office of aging and independence and the department of public health, promulgate rules and regulations for the licensing and conduct of a home care agency. In developing these rules and regulations, the secretary shall review all existing licensure, reporting and oversight requirements across the long-term care services and support system and other relevant state agencies, including the provider monitoring conducted by the Aging Services Access Points, to avoid duplication or conflicting requirements and to ensure that home care agency licensure processes align with the current licensure for home health agencies and with state oversight process already in place through the Aging Services Access Points and the nurse aide registry.

The regulations shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(i) background screening check requirements for all home care workers which may include: (1) Massachusetts criminal background checks, (2) state or county criminal history screenings for each location outside of the commonwealth in which the home care professional is known to have lived or worked during the previous 5 years, (3) review of the federal Office of

Inspector General List of Excluded Individuals/Entities, (4) review of the nurse aide registry, (5) applicable professional licensing board check and (6) for all home care professionals who will transport consumers, verification of auto insurance and driving records for a minimum of the previous 5 years;

(ii) minimum standards for consumer-specific service plans and contracts; provided, that the plans shall include: (1) a detailed description of services, including services the primary agency is subcontracting to another agency or provider, (2) a written unit rate and total cost of services, inclusive of any additional fees or deposits, and (3) contact information for consumer questions;

(iii) minimum coverage requirements for workers' compensation insurance and liability insurance;

(iv) maintenance of a payroll process that follows all state and federal labor and wage laws;

(v) annual and ongoing training and competency requirements for home care agency staff that are in direct contact with home care consumers; provided, that minimum training requirements shall include (1) confidentiality and privacy of home care consumer's rights, (2) infection control and communicable diseases, (3) handling of emergencies, including safety and falls prevention, (4) observation, reporting and documenting changes in consumer needs and environment, (5) identifying and reporting suspected abuse, neglect or theft, (6) understanding Alzheimer's disease and dementia, including person centered care, activities of daily living, safety and dementia-related behaviors and communication and (7) wage theft. The trainings shall be culturally and linguistically competent for the trainee;

101 (vi) policies and procedures to ensure home care workers have safe working conditions,
102 adequate training and a process for submitting complaints;

103 (vii) maintenance of an emergency preparedness plan;

104 (viii) meeting of quality metrics and standards to be set forth in the licensing regulations;

105 (ix) requirements and written processes for the timely reporting of home care consumer
106 complaints;

107 (x) a suitability determination process; provided, that the process shall include, but not be 108 limited to, requiring all applicants to attest to having sufficient financial capacity to provide 109 ongoing care and services in compliance with state law and regulation; and 110 (xi) providing adequate equipment and supplies for home care workers.

111 (f)The secretary shall be responsible for licensing home care agencies. To accomplish the 112 objectives set forth in this section, the secretary may coordinate and consult with the offices and 113 agencies that are interested in matters pertaining to the delivery of home care services, including 114 but not limited to: (1) the department of public health, (2) the executive office of aging and 115 independence and (3) the department of consumer affairs and business regulation The 116 responsibilities of the regulating agency shall include:

117 (i) reviewing and processing licensure applications, including a suitability review that 118 ensures the applicant can meet the obligations and conditions of licensure, including:

119 (A) a review of the state disbarment list and federal Office of Inspector General List of 120 Excluded Individuals/Entities; and

(B) a competency review where all individuals with at least a 5 per cent ownership stake in the home care agency shall submit the individuals' names, contact information, companies where they have at least a 5 per cent ownership, any civil or criminal findings against said individual, and a completed background check;

(ii) establishing a process for a change of ownership that includes advanced notice to home care consumers and home care workers and a review by the regulating state agency to determine if the new licensee can meet the obligations and conditions of licensure, including a suitability review; provided, that home care agency licenses shall not be transferable;

(iii) working with other regulators to investigate and resolve complaints;

(iv) imposing fines on the licensee when determined to be appropriate;

(v) suspending or revoking licenses when determined to be appropriate;

(vi) posting a listing of licensed home care agencies on a publicly available webpage;

(vii) allowing for "deemed status" for licensure of home care agencies if an Aging Service Access Points or MassHealth provider contract is in place;

(viii) establishing of quality metrics and standards for monitoring the licensed home care agency performance, including reporting mechanisms for tracking performance; and

(ix) annual reporting by home care agencies, which may include reporting on quality metrics and significant changes related to home care agency finances.

Section 51Q. (a) The secretary, in consultation with the home care worker and consumer abuse stakeholder advisory committee establishing in subsection (b), MassHealth, the department of aging and independence, the department of public health and the PCA quality home care workforce council established pursuant to section 71 of chapter 118E, shall adopt minimum standards and procedures for addressing abusive treatment and bullying of Massachusetts home care workers, personal care attendants and home care consumers. The standards and procedures shall address physical, verbal and mental abuse either of or from individual home care consumers as well as any abusive treatment or bullying from home care consumer surrogates, family members, other caregivers and any others present in the home care consumers' household when the home care worker is providing home care services. The standards and procedures shall promote appropriate home care worker and home care consumer training and support and a safe and healthy work environment for home care workers, while recognizing the privacy rights of home care consumers, the role of personal care attendant consumer employers and that home care consumers may have a disruptive behavioral disorder underlying abuse behavior.

(b) There shall be a home care worker and consumer abuse stakeholder advisory committee that shall meet, study and make recommendations to the secretary relative to standards and procedures for addressing abusive treatment and bullying of home care workers, personal care attendants and home care consumers.

The advisory committee shall consist of the following 16 members: the secretary or a designee, who shall serve as chair; the assistant secretary for MassHealth or a designee; the secretary of aging and independence or a designee; the commissioner of public health or a designee; the chairs of the joint committee on aging and independence or their designees; and 10 persons to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be a personal care attendant, 1 of whom shall be a home care agency direct care worker, 1 of whom shall be a consumer of personal care attendant services who shall be a member of the PCA workforce council, 1 of

164 whom shall be a consumer of home care agency services, 1 of whom shall be a representative of 165 the statewide independent living council, 1 of whom shall be a representative of the Disability
166 Law Center, Inc., 1 of whom shall be a representative of the Mass Aging Access , 1 of whom 167 shall be a representative of the Home Care Aide Council, 1 of whom shall be a representative of 168 the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts, Inc., and 1 of whom shall be a representative of the 169 Local 1199 Service Employees International Union. The members of the advisory committee 170 shall serve without compensation.

171 The advisory committee shall submit a report containing initial findings and 172 recommendations, including drafts of proposed legislation or regulatory changes to carry out its 173 recommendations, by filing the same with the clerks of the senate and house of representatives, 174 the joint committee on aging and independence and the joint committee on public health. The 175 advisory committee shall continue to meet quarterly following submission of the report and until 176 the advisory committee votes to dissolve itself.

177 (c) The home care worker and consumer abuse stakeholder advisory committee shall 178 study and make findings and recommendations relative to the development and implementation 179 of minimum standards and procedures for addressing abusive treatment and bullying of 180 Massachusetts home care workers, personal care attendants and home care consumers. The 181 advisory committee's study, findings and recommendations shall include, but not be limited to:

182 (1) Reporting and debriefing, including best practices for standards and procedures for 183 home care workers and their home care consumers experiencing abusive treatment, bullying or 184 neglect to report abuse to the home care workers' employers or appropriate state entities, 185 including the PCA workforce council or MassHealth for personal care assistants, without retaliation and while retaining the right to report any criminal activity to law enforcement. The standards shall include, but not be limited to, best practices for a debriefing process for affected home care workers and home care consumers following violent acts.

(2) Tracking and record retention, including best practices for standards and procedures for the secretary to track and monitor reports of both home care worker abuse and reports of home care consumer abuse or neglect.

(3) Informing workers, including best practices for standards and procedures that would require employers of home care workers or other appropriate state entities, including the PCA workforce council or MassHealth for personal care assistants, to regularly inform home care workers of patterns of consumer or worker abuse or bullying that indicates a potentially unsafe working environment. The standards and procedures shall respect home care consumer privacy while prioritizing home care worker safety and while ensuring continuity of care.

(4) Training and employer policies, including best practices for standards and procedures for the secretary, in consultation with home care employers and other stakeholders, to develop and implement home care worker and home care consumer orientations and other trainings on:

- (i) worker abuse and bullying, (ii) escalation cycles and effective de-escalation techniques and
- (iii) culturally competent and peer-to-peer trainings and strategies to prevent physical harm with hands-on practice or role play. The training and employer policies shall also include best practices for home care employers to implement additional internal plans and procedures to: (A) reduce workplace violence and abuse, (B) offer resources to employees for coping with the effects of violence and (C) develop labor-management workplace safety committees. The 207 training and employer policies shall consider and avoid duplication of existing requirements and 208 trainings in place through Aging Service Access Points.

209 Section 51R. (a) There is hereby established a home care oversight advisory council 210 within the executive office of health and human services.

211 The advisory council shall advise the secretary relating to the regulations described in 212 subsection (e) of section 51P. The executive office of health and human services shall consult 213 with the advisory council on implementation of the home care agency licensure process outlined 214 in section 51P. The advisory council may also conduct a review concurrently with the 215 development of the home care agency licensure regulations to include, but not be limited to:

216 (i) the process of implementing the new home care agency licensure requirements in the 217 commonwealth, including the creation of a provisional license to address identified gaps in home
218 care services;

219 (ii) existing licensure, reporting and oversight requirements across the long-term care
220 services and support systems and other relevant state agencies, including the provider monitoring
221 conducted by the Aging Services Access Points, to avoid duplication and conflicting 222 requirements;

223 (iii) home care agency licensure requirements in other states;

224 (iv) establishing license application and renewal fees that are necessary and sufficient for 225 the secretary and regulating agency to implement the requirements of Section 51P;

226 (v) processes to ensure that the home care agency licensure process will align with 227 licensure for home health agencies and with state oversight process already in place through the

228 Aging Services Access Points, the home care worker registry established in section 4D of 229 chapter 19A and the nurse aide registry established in section 72J of chapter 111;

230 (vi) the development of a process for state government to conduct a statewide home care
231 market analysis and report on current available home care services in all regions that may inform 232 the regulating agency and the issuance of new home care agency licenses; and

233 (vii) any additional subjects that the home care oversight advisory council and the 234 secretary deem necessary and appropriate.

235 (b) The advisory council shall be composed of the secretary or their designee, who shall 236 serve as chair; the chairs of the joint committee on aging and independence or their designees;
237 the secretary of aging and independence or their designee; the commissioner of public health or 238 their designee; the assistant secretary for MassHealth or their designee; 1 person to be appointed 239 by the minority leader of the house of representatives; 1 person to be appointed by the minority 240 leader of the senate; and 4 persons to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be a 241 representative of the Home Care Aide Council, 1 of whom shall be a representative of the Home
242 Care Alliance of Massachusetts, Inc., 1 of whom shall be a representative of Mass Aging Access.
243 and 1 of whom shall be a representative of Local 1199 Service Employees International Union.

244 (c) The council shall meet quarterly. Upon the promulgation of regulations for home care 245 agency licensure pursuant to subsection (e) of section 51P, the council may introduce a motion to 246 dissolve by a majority vote of its members.

247 SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 151B of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 2022
248 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “thereof”, in line 21, the 249 following words:- and an employer of a personal care attendant as defined in section 70 of 250 chapter 118E, including individual consumers of a personal care attendant.

251 SECTION 3. The secretary of health and human services shall, in consultation with the 252 executive office of aging and independence and the department of public health, promulgate 253 rules and regulations for the licensing and conduct of a home care agency, as provided in 254 subsection (e) of section 51P of chapter 111 of the General Laws, within 1 year of the effective 255 date of this act.

256 SECTION 4. The home care worker and consumer abuse stakeholder advisory committee 257 established in subsection (b) of section 51Q of said chapter 111 shall meet at least monthly in the 258 first 6 months after the effective date of this act to develop initial findings and recommendations.
259 The advisory committee shall submit the report described in said subsection (b) of said section 260 51Q of said chapter 111 not later than 6 months after the effective date of this act.

261 SECTION 5. Members of the home care oversight advisory council established in section
262 51R of said chapter 111 shall be named and the council shall commence its work within 60 days 263 of the effective date of this act.
