In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act relative to enhancing cost of living adjustment for certain long term career public retirees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Paragraph (c) of section 102 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, as 2     appearing in the 2022 Official Edition, is amended by striking out in lines 34, 38 and 46 the 3     dollar amount “$13,000”, and inserting in place thereof the following dollar amount: - $18,000.

4           SECTION 2. Section 102 of Chapter 32 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 5     amended by adding at the end thereof the following:- (h) Every member of the state employee
6     retirement system and the teacher’s retirement system who qualifies and has attained fifteen full 7     years of retirement as of June 30 of the prior fiscal year who receive a cost of living increase
8     shall receive an additional one hundred dollar benefit to said increase. Said one hundred dollar 9     benefit shall be granted only to members of the state retirement system and the teacher’s retirement system whose total annual retirement benefit is less than the average annual retirement benefit as determined by the retirement system's most recent actuarial valuation and retired with twenty or more years of creditable service, provided however, those members who retired with a disability benefit under sections 6, 7 or 26 shall be eligible with less than twenty years of creditable service. Any surviving beneficiary of a deceased member who would otherwise be eligible for aforesaid additional benefit under this paragraph, including those beneficiaries receiving a benefit under sections 9, 12 or 101, shall receive said additional benefit if it is determined they are eligible by the retirement board in which they are a participant.

Every member of the state employee retirement system and the teacher's retirement system who has attained twenty full years of retirement as of June 30 of the prior fiscal year who receive a cost of living increase shall receive an additional two hundred dollar benefit to said increase. Said two hundred dollar benefit shall be granted only to members of the state retirement system and the teacher's retirement system whose total annual retirement benefit is less than the average annual retirement benefit as determined by the retirement system's most recent actuarial valuation and retired with twenty or more years of creditable service. Any surviving beneficiary of a deceased member who would otherwise be eligible for aforesaid additional benefit under this paragraph, including those beneficiaries receiving a benefit under section 9, 12 or 101, shall receive said additional benefit if it is determined they are eligible by the retirement board in which they are a participant.

SECTION 3. Section 103 of Chapter 32 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:- (k) Upon acceptance of the provisions of this paragraph as provided in paragraph (n), every member of a retirement system other than the state employees retirement system and the teachers' retirement system, who has attained fifteen

33 full years of retirement as of June 30 of the prior fiscal year and receives a cost of living increase 34 pursuant to this section, shall receive an additional one hundred dollar benefit to said increase.
35 Said one hundred dollar benefit shall be granted only to members of a retirement system, other 36 than the state employees retirement system and the teachers' retirement system, whose total 37 annual retirement benefit is less than the average annual retirement benefit as determined by their 38 retirement system's most recent actuarial valuation and retired with twenty or more years of 39 creditable service, provided however, those members who retired with a disability benefit under 40 sections 6, 7 or 26 shall be eligible with less than twenty years of creditable service. Any 41 surviving beneficiary of a deceased member who would otherwise be eligible for aforesaid 42 additional benefit under this paragraph, including those beneficiaries receiving a benefit under 43 sections 9, 12 or 101, shall receive said additional benefit if it is determined they are eligible by 44 the retirement board in which they are a participant.

45 (l) Upon acceptance of the provisions of this paragraph as provided in paragraph (n), 46 every member of a retirement system other than the state employees retirement system and the 47 teachers' retirement system, who has attained twenty full years of retirement as of June 30 of the 48 prior fiscal year and receives a cost of living increase pursuant to this section, shall receive an 49 additional two hundred dollar benefit to said increase. Said two hundred dollar benefit shall be 50 granted only to members of a retirement system other than the state employees retirement system
51 and the teachers' retirement system whose total annual retirement benefit is less than the average
52 annual retirement benefit as determined by their retirement system's most recent actuarial 53 valuation and retired with twenty or more years of creditable service, provided however, those 54 members who retired with a disability benefit under sections 6, 7 or 26 shall be eligible with less 55 than twenty years of creditable service. Any surviving beneficiary of a deceased member who would otherwise be eligible for aforesaid additional benefit under this paragraph, including those beneficiaries receiving a benefit under sections 9, 12 or 101, shall receive said additional benefit if it is determined they are eligible by the retirement board in which they participate.

(m) Upon acceptance of the provisions of this paragraph as provided in paragraph (n), every member of a retirement system other than the state employees retirement system and the teachers' retirement system, who has attained fifteen but not more than twenty full years of retirement as of June 30 of the prior fiscal year and receives a cost of living increase pursuant to this section, shall receive an additional one hundred dollar benefit and for those who has attained more than twenty years of retirement as of June 30 of the prior fiscal year, shall receive an additional two hundred dollar benefit to said increase. Such additional benefits shall be granted only to members of a retirement system, other than the state employees retirement system and the teachers' retirement system, whose total annual retirement benefit is less than the average annual retirement benefit as determined by their retirement system's most recent actuarial valuation and retired with twenty or more years of creditable service, provided however, those members who retired with a disability benefit under sections 6, 7 or 26 shall be eligible with less than twenty years of creditable service. Any surviving beneficiary of a deceased member who would otherwise be eligible for aforesaid additional benefit under this paragraph, including those beneficiaries receiving a benefit under sections 9, 12 or 101, shall receive said additional benefit if it is determined they are eligible by the retirement board in which they are a participant.

(n) Acceptance of the provisions of paragraphs (k). (l) or (m) shall be by a majority vote of the board of such system, subject to the approval of the legislative body. For the purpose of this section, "legislative body" shall mean, in the case of a city, the city council in accordance with its charter, in the case of a town, the town meeting, in the case of a district, the district

79 members, and, in the case of an authority, the governing body. In the case of a county or region,
80 acceptance shall be by the county or regional retirement board advisory council at a meeting
81 called for that purpose by the county or regional retirement board, Acceptance of this paragraph 82 shall be deemed to have occurred upon the filing of the certification of such vote with the 83 commission. A decision to accept the provisions of this paragraph may not be revoked.
