The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

Resolve regarding revitalizing the right of free petition.

1 Resolved, 1.) A Resolution regarding informing the population of Massachusetts about
2 the use of the Right Of Free Petition; the use of Bills, Resolves, Resolutions, and Proposals for 3 Constitutional Amendments.

4 2.) It being the proper business of the persons of Massachusetts, to be able to intersect
5 with their government, therefore The Right Of Free Petition, should be revitalized, by a series of 6 steps considered by The Great And General Court, and its two legislative chambers.

7 3.) This legislation requests and describes creation of a Special Committee and/or 8 Commission of members of the House, and Senate, to consider how to publicize, educate, and 9 disseminate information to the general population of Massachusetts, regarding the availability, and processes for filing proposed legislative actions under the Right Of Free Petition: Bills, Resolves, Resolutions, and Proposals for Constitutional Amendments.

4.) The Special Committee and/or Commission shall hold, well-publicized hearings, at both the State House, and in at least four other geographically disparate areas of The Commonwealth, to collect public comment regarding actions to be taken.

5.) A suitable generally available publication shall be created, and disseminated by the Secretary of The Commonwealth, to provide general information as to how this right can be readily exercised. – It is the intent of this measure, that more individuals may bring forward, ideas, thoughts, and useful mechanisms, for the benefit of government, and our society.

6.) This body shall be a membership appointed by the Speaker Of The House, President Of The Senate, and shall have representation of all legally recognized, ballot status, political parties, including Unenrolled (non-party, ‘Independents’) from each body. Membership shall be appointed within three (3) months of passage.

7.) This body shall have a lifespan of eighteen (18) months from the appointment of its members.
