SENATE No. 2876

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act directing the Massachusetts Department of Transportation to study the feasibility of restoring commuter rail to Cape Cod.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The Massachusetts Department of Transportation shall conduct a feasibility study relative
2 to restoring commuter rail service to Buzzards Bay station in the town of Bourne.

3 The study shall examine and evaluate the feasibility and benefits of such a project,
4 including, but not limited to: (i) the projected capital costs; (ii) the availability of federal, state,
5 local and private sector funding sources; (iii) the projected operating costs and revenue
6 estimates; (iv) the projected ridership levels; (v) the prospect of operating on existing rights of 7 way and other operational issues; (vi) potential regulatory or statutory obstacles; (vii) the 8 environmental and community impact estimates; and (viii) the potential economic, social and 9 cultural benefits to the region and the commonwealth as a whole.

10 The department shall file the report with the clerks of the house and senate, the chairs of 11 the house and senate committee on ways and means and the senate and house chairs of the joint 12 committee on transportation not later than 12 months after this section takes effect.
