In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court

An Act establishing a commission to study the promotion of preferred pharmacy networks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a commission
2 to study the implementation of preferred pharmacy networks, whereby health insurers steer 3 consumers to lower-cost “preferred” pharmacies where insurers can negotiate lower drug prices.

4 The commission shall consist of the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on 5 health care financing, who shall serve as the co-chairs; one member to be appointed by the 6 speaker of the house of representatives; one member to be appointed by the president of the 7 senate; one member to be appointed by the house minority leader; one member to be appointed 8 by the senate minority leader; the director of the health policy commission or a designee; the

9 commissioner of the department of public health or a designee; and the executive director of the 10 center for health information and analysis or a designee.

11 The commission shall study the feasibility of implementing preferred pharmacy networks
12 and make recommendations based on a cost-benefit analysis of such networks. The commission 13 shall provide estimates of projected savings in prescription drug costs from implementing such 14 networks.

15 The commission shall submit its report and findings, along with any recommendations 16 and drafted legislation, to the house and senate committees on ways and means, the joint 17 committee on health care financing, and the clerks of the house of representatives and senate 18 within 12 months of the passage of this act.
