HOUSE No. 2767

By Representative Cahill of Lynn (by request), a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2767) of Coleman Walsh for legislation to establish a special commission (including members of the General Court) to collective bargaining negotiations between public sector employers and employee unions. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court (2025-2026)

An Act establishing a commission to resolve issues arising from collective bargaining stalemates.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. Purpose and Intent

2 The purpose of this Act is to establish a Commission to study the results of impasses in 3 collective bargaining negotiations between public sector employers and employee unions.

4 Section 2. Definitions

5 For the purposes of this Act, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to 6 them:

7 (a) "Commission" means the Collective Bargaining Resolution Commission established
8 under this Act. (b) "Collective bargaining stalemate" means a situation where negotiation
9 between a public employer and a recognized employee union has failed to reach an agreement
10 after a reasonable period. (c) "Public employer" means any government entity, agency, or department involved in collective bargaining with a union representing public employees. (d)

"Union" means a labor organization recognized as the exclusive representative of public employees in a bargaining unit.

Section 3. Establishment of the Commission

There is hereby established a Commission to research and report to the Legislature on the effects from collective bargaining stalemates (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission").

Section 4. Composition of the Commission

(a) The Commission shall consist of the following members: (1) One member appointed by the Governor. (2) One member appointed by the Speaker of the House. (3) One member appointed by the Senate President. (4) One member representing the Massachusetts Teachers Association. (5) One member representing the American Federation of Teachers. (6) One member representing public employers, appointed by the Massachusetts Municipal Association.
(7) One independent member with expertise in mediation and dispute resolution, appointed by the Governor.

Section 5: Term

The Commission shall report its findings to the Legislature on or before July 31, 2026.

Section 6. Effective Date

This Act shall take effect 90 days after its passage and approval by the Governor.
